

The Arts links on Tāhūrangi

There are some really good resources on Tāhūrangi.
They are just not that easy to find!
Here is the direct link to The Arts section on Tāhūrangi:

Tāhūrangi: The Arts

Many pages on Tāhūrangi have downloadable materials.

You need to find these symbols to download resources:

Materials that come with this resource:

Use the filters on the left hand side of the webpage to narrow your search

FILTERS

Expand all | Collapse all

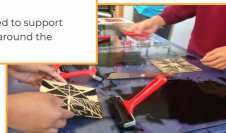

Learning Area	+
Rating	+
Audience	+
Curriculum Level	+
Education Sector	+
Progression range	+
Resource Language	+
Resource type	+
Series	+

Some of the resources available on The Arts page of Tāhūrangi

Aotearoa and the Venice Biennale

This resource is intended to support teaching and learning around the Venice Art Biennale.

Imprints of Identity

This resource for years 7–10 engages students in making tapa, investigating significance of Pasifika arts and generating their own works.

Giraffes can't dance

This unit engages year 3–4 students in the well-known text Giraffe's Can't Dance, by Giles Andreae and Guy Parker-Rees and invites them to explore

Note: if you are a Google Apps school and some materials only download as Powerpoint or Word, you can download them and then upload them into your Google Drive and they will automatically turn into Google Docs or Slides. Even though they won't open on your computer when downloaded, they will still upload in the correct format.